FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Hayes Software Systems on Inc. Magazine's List of Fastest Growing Private Companies

Austin, TX, September 10, 2007:

Hayes Software Systems, a developer of administrative software products serving the K-12 education market, today announced that Inc. Magazine has ranked the company No. 3,129 on its first-ever Inc. 5,000 list of the fastest-growing private companies in the country. Additionally, Hayes Software Systems was ranked No. 55 of the companies in Austin-Round Rock, Texas.

"The Inc. 5,000 provides the most comprehensive look ever at the most important part of the economy - the entrepreneurial part," said Inc. 5,000 Project Manager Jim Melloan.

Hayes Software Systems specializes in developing solutions to automate niche information management tasks of the K-12 education market. The company's Web-based TIPWeb solution enables school districts across the country to manage, automate, and control textbook inventories from the district administration building down to the student and teacher.

"Being recognized by Inc. Magazine as one of the fastest growing companies in the county is a rewarding accolade for my team," said Michael Hayes, President and CEO of Hayes Software Systems. "Perhaps more important is the affirmation that, even after 17 years, we still command a position of leadership in the education administration software market."
